

CHAMPAGNE AND FINE DINING THE SECRET TO LONGEVITY!

When Adel Simpson was looking where to celebrate her 100th birthday the choice was quite straight forward. Nothing but the best for her and her family as they headed to The Burlington restaurant at The Devonshire Arms Country House Hotel, Yorkshire's highest rated restaurant to honour this very special occasion. Mrs Simpson is well-known to the staff at The Burlington and they were delighted to be part of such an exciting celebration which started off with champagne in the cocktail lounge, with the compliments of The Devonshire Arms, before Sunday Lunch in the Burlington restaurant.

Restaurant Manager, Valentine Gazghonov said, "We all felt very honoured to be part of such an important occasion. Mrs Simpson never stopped smiling and amazingly she didn't use either a walk stick or glasses to read the menu. All I can say is 'thank you very much Mrs Simpson for sharing your day with us'. Maybe the secret of reaching 100 years old is fine food and champagne!"

Mrs Simpson who was joined by her daughter Mrs Spoor had earlier been to church and said, "I had a lovely day with fabulous food in The Burlington Restaurant and we felt very well looked after by friendly and professional staff."

The Devonshire Arms is just over half an hour's drive from Mrs Simpson's home town of Ripon attracting diners for both dinner and Sunday Lunch from a wide area across the North of England.
