Step One: Be greeted with a bottle of Champagne in your room.

Step Two: Enjoy a fantastic meal in the award-winning restaurant.

Step Three: Retire for a peaceful night’s sleep, followed by a full English breakfast.

The “One, Two, Three” offer is available from just £79 per person, based on two people sharing, until 23 December 2011. Guests will each be given a £25 allowance towards their dinner.

The Derbyshire Food and Drink Awards celebrate the very best of Derbyshire’s eateries and establishments, judging them on the quality of the food and drink, use of county produce and acknowledgement of it on menus, as well as customer service.

Head Chef, Alan Hill is renowned for using local ingredients on the menu in his 18th Century coaching inn. Guests can also sample one of the 200 wines the hotel’s cellar has on offer, or try one of the locally brewed ales.

The atmospheric Inn has retained its original features, such as a low beamed ceiling and open fires. Diners can choose to dine within the traditional Inn, or the Brasserie which has been personally designed by the Duchess of Devonshire.
